

To the LORD your God
belong the heavens,
even the highest heavens,
the earth and everything in it.

Deuteronomy 10:14

©2004 Heartlight, Inc. <http://www.heartlight.org>

This is OUR GOD!

Studies in Deuteronomy
February to April 2014

Bangalow
Presbyterian Church
Connect. Grow. Serve.

This is OUR GOD!

Study one: Deuteronomy chapters 1 to 3.

Read the passage over several days or in one sitting. Pray first and take notes as you read! Bring your writings to your Growth Group to discuss together.

What questions arise in your mind as you read?

What does this passage teach us about how God does things?

What does this passage teach us about the fallen, human condition?

What does this passage teach us about how God will do things through Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about the kind of people God wants his people to be, both then and now?

From the passage, what can you be praying
For your church family

For unbelieving people

For yourself

What GOD has ever done this?!

Study two: Deuteronomy chapter 4.

Read the passage over several days or in one sitting. Pray first and take notes as you read! Bring your writings to your Growth Group to discuss together.

What questions arise in your mind as you read?

What does this passage teach us about how God does things?

What does this passage teach us about the fallen, human condition?

What does this passage teach us about how God will do things through Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about the kind of people God wants his people to be, both then and now?

From the passage, what can you be praying
For your church family

For unbelieving people

For yourself

Back to THE Garden.

Study three: Deuteronomy chapters 5 and 6.

Read the passage over several days or in one sitting. Pray first and take notes as you read! Bring your writings to your Growth Group to discuss together.

What questions arise in your mind as you read?

What does this passage teach us about how God does things?

What does this passage teach us about the fallen, human condition?

What does this passage teach us about how God will do things through Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about the kind of people God wants his people to be, both then and now?

From the passage, what can you be praying
For your church family

For unbelieving people

For yourself

Our God loves LOYALTY.

Study four: Deuteronomy chapters 6 to 11.

Read the passage over several days or in one sitting. Pray first and take notes as you read! Bring your writings to your Growth Group to discuss together.

What questions arise in your mind as you read?

What does this passage teach us about how God does things?

What does this passage teach us about the fallen, human condition?

What does this passage teach us about how God will do things through Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about the kind of people God wants his people to be, both then and now?

From the passage, what can you be praying
For your church family

For unbelieving people

For yourself

THANKFUL loyalty!

Study five: Deuteronomy chapters 12-25.

Read the passage over several days or in one sitting. Pray first and take notes as you read! Bring your writings to your Growth Group to discuss together.

What questions arise in your mind as you read?

What does this passage teach us about how God does things?

What does this passage teach us about the fallen, human condition?

What does this passage teach us about how God will do things through Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about the kind of people God wants his people to be, both then and now?

From the passage, what can you be praying
For your church family

For unbelieving people

For yourself

A slice of HEAVEN.

Study six: Deuteronomy chapter 26.

Read the passage over several days or in one sitting. Pray first and take notes as you read! Bring your writings to your Growth Group to discuss together.

What questions arise in your mind as you read?

What does this passage teach us about how God does things?

What does this passage teach us about the fallen, human condition?

What does this passage teach us about how God will do things through Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about the kind of people God wants his people to be, both then and now?

From the passage, what can you be praying
For your church family

For unbelieving people

For yourself

Our God's WORD revealed.

Study seven: Deuteronomy chapters 27-30

Read the passage over several days or in one sitting. Pray first and take notes as you read! Bring your writings to your Growth Group to discuss together.

What questions arise in your mind as you read?

What does this passage teach us about how God does things?

What does this passage teach us about the fallen, human condition?

What does this passage teach us about how God will do things through Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about the kind of people God wants his people to be, both then and now?

From the passage, what can you be praying
For your church family

For unbelieving people

For yourself

The leader we HAD to LOSE.

Study eight: Deuteronomy chapters 31-34.

Read the passage over several days or in one sitting. Pray first and take notes as you read! Bring your writings to your Growth Group to discuss together.

What questions arise in your mind as you read?

What does this passage teach us about how God does things?

What does this passage teach us about the fallen, human condition?

What does this passage teach us about how God will do things through Jesus?

What does this passage teach us about the kind of people God wants his people to be, both then and now?

From the passage, what can you be praying
For your church family

For unbelieving people

For yourself

Ideas for PRAYER

Ideas for PRAYER

Ideas for PRAYER

Bangalow
Presbyterian Church
Connect. Grow. Serve.